

THE LIFE

deluxe edition alone

The Life were named best new Northwest band in 1987, based on their live performances and their debut album Alone. They were not grunge. They were 100% Seattle rock. Great songs. Great singer. Freakazoid monster guitar player. Great band.

This release features the entire 10 song Alone album remastered by GMR guru Tom Dyer. Sounds ridiculously fresh! It also features an entire second bonus disc, Witness The Will, containing 17 songs recorded for their unreleased second album shortly before they stepped off the precipice into history.

The Life was: Jimm McIver - Vocal and Guitar; Tony Bortko (R.I.P.) – The Guitar; Casey Allen – Bass; Eric Lichter - Drums

Other Stuff:

- Great new YouTube video for Freedom Is ...
- Eric and Jimm perform as Picture Day, who released Wild Aim (2010).
- The late Tony Bortko was an original member of Seattle proto metal band TKO
- Jimm McIver has released 2 solo discs, Polaroid Angel (2002) and Sweet Petunia Modern and the Holograms of Düm (2006).
- Eric is a member of The Green Pajamas and has released a solo album Palm Wine Sunday Blue (2002).
- Available from Burnside Dist, CDbaby and direct from Green Monkey Records
- GMR website (www.GreenMonkeyRecords.com) features streaming "Album of the Month" with GMR artists and various other fine Northwest goo.

Press from '87

"...an excellent album that'll be on your turntable constantly after you hear it."
Natalie Kerr, The Bind Armadillo

"Clear cut and as emotionally direct as an emerald ring..." Phil McMullen -
Bucketfull of Brains

"The Life may be one of the few bands in the Northwest who can reap what they sow." Cynthia Kludt -The Rocket
